Sunday, April 21, 2024

11:00am - 12:30pm

Rye Presbyterian Church

Please join us to help fight hunger by purchasing bowls handmade by over 50 CAC artists and students.

For more than 20 years Clay Art Center has mobilized hundreds of community members and artists to create thousands of handmade ceramic bowls. Together, with Rye Presbyterian Church and a host of volunteers, we have raised over $75,000 in the fight to end hunger in Westchester County.

Clay Art Center Executive Director, Emily Peck shares, “We are proud to participate in Empty Bowls as our way of giving back to the Port Chester community by raising money to support food organizations. Please join us by purchasing a handcrafted bowl and help families in need in Port Chester.”

Join us at Rye Presbyterian Church on Sunday, April 21, 2024, from 11 am to 12:30 pm to shop beautifully crafted bowls made by more than 50 Clay Art Center artists and students. Soup is included with the purchase of a bowl for you to take home and enjoy. The soup will be provided by Sabin Meyer Corporation. Students from Hackley Middle School will provide signs for the event, and representatives from the Don Bosco Community Center will also be there to chat with supporters. All proceeds will be donated to Don Bosco Community Center to help families in need in Port Chester, NY.
